Who decides what these words mean?

Choose one:

Label: _____

Someone might use this word to hurt because:

But someone else might see it as:

Now:

REWRITE IT.

Turn one negative label into something powerful.

becomes

“I AM _____.”

FIND YOUR DOOR

Mummy's School is fundamentally about finding the place where you can walk through the door as yourself.

WHAT WOULD MAKE A SCHOOL FEEL LIKE YOU BELONG THERE?

Write or draw things on and around the door.

Prompts: Someone would... Teachers would... Friends would... Nobody would have to... Everyone would be allowed to...

Then above the door:

WRITE YOUR OWN SCHOOL MOTTO

(draw door here)

A place doesn't become welcoming because it says everyone belongs. It becomes welcoming because of what happens after they walk through the door.
